

Gladys Naomi Hannah

March 2, 2013

Gladys Naomi Hannah was born August 1, 1932 in Smithfield, North Carolina to Loualla and Jack Dublin. Gladys moved to Baltimore, Maryland, where she met Mitchell David Hannah, Jr. Gladys and Mitchell married March 7, 1953. Gladys and Mitchell moved to Philadelphia, PA where they started their family. Gladys worked as a seamstress for the Defense Supply Depot in Philadelphia. She retired in January 1994. Her caring and nurturing nature drew her to a part time job as an assistant at a daycare for pre-school and school age children for about 3 years.

Gladys was a faithful steward at Philipppian Baptist Church in Philadelphia. Gladys was especially remembered for her loyalty, dedication to all she encountered as well as her support and encouraging words. Gladys is survived by her step-son Bishop Michael Hannah; daughters Latifah Davis and LaVerne Simmons and Son David Hannah who preceded her in death. Gladys also leaves behind grandchildren, Alesha Simmons, Christina Davis, Taska Davis, David Hannah, Jr., Evan Hannah and Nirelle Davis; great grandchildren, Phoenix Simmons, Marilyn Davis, Adon Emanuel Simmons and a host of nieces and nephews.
