

Harold Rudolph Jones Jr.

April 24, 1954 - July 3, 2017

Harold Rudolph Jones, Jr. born in Bartow, Florida on April 24, 1954 was the eldest son of the late Harold Jones, Sr. and the late Vera (May) Jones, entered into eternal rest and peace on July 3, 2017.

Harold, known as “Pop” by his siblings attended and finished out his education at Bartow High School. He was also a soldier in the United States Army.

Throughout his life, he worked in various occupations and with the support of his wife and son, Harold settled on becoming a tractor trailer truck driver even to the point of owning his company. In his retirement and all the more, he was a master barbecue-griller, avid fisherman, loved old school music and gospel songs and spending time with his family with friends.

Harold leaves behind to cherish his memories, his wife Dorshawn Jones, children Travis (Aigner) Jones, Daryl Roby and Isaiah Ficklin. His grandchildren Shalaya and Nasir Jones, Sister Harriet Gilley, Brother Kelvin T. Jones, Sr., Sister Jacquelyn (Eddie) Wright, Sister Sylvia (Mark) Ryndock, Brother Kenneth L. Jones, Sr. (Shelia), Sister Andrea V. Jones, Brother Calvin Ott (Catherine) all of Rochester, NY area and a big host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends that loved him abundantly, also a “Forever friend” who was like a brother, Herb (Peggy) Wilson of Fort Mill, SC.

He was preceded in death by his younger sister Darlene Jones.

Harold has been given Mercy by his Lord and delivered unto His Grace, because his Lord felt that his soldier had fought a hard battle and knew that he needed rest. His Lord said Well Done!

“ Bro. Jones was a member of my church. He was funny and always cracking jokes. I remeber him singing or talking and his voice was so deep. Sorry about your lost Sis. Jones. At least he is in a better place.
