“ To The Heath, Mobley, and Chapman families: our condolences, prayers and love as you go through this time of grief. May God's Peace surround you and comfort you. Hold close to your loving memories and may you find moments of laughter in the midst of your tears. "Let not your heart be troubled, you believe in God believe also in Me (Jesus Christ)." Jesus has prepared a mansion for your Uncle Harvey. Love and prayers, Bobby & Deborah Dozier

“ Wow Harvey, this is “Big Daddy” (Dave) & Fran. Can’t believe you are gone. You have been like family for so many years. I think about the old Coffee Cup days all the time...the good old days. We traveled the country together working and you being a great Chef. Those memories of working events with Tiger Woods and Venus and Serena Williams are priceless. You were a great Chef but most of all a great person. I guess you got tired and had to leave us. You will be forever in our hearts. Rest in Heaven!

“ Well Harvey, this is Big Daddy (Dave) & Fran and our hearts are broken. You have been like family to us and we have traveled around the country working and cooking. GreT times together. Will miss you man. I know you got tired and I understand. So give Mildred, Ms. Myrt, Pauline. Eddie and Kingsize a hug for me. Those Coffee Cup Days will live with me forever. Daddy and Bobby will smile when they see you. Love you brother and I’m heartbroken. Rest In Heaven❤️

“ I met Mr. Harvey Heath while I was working on post at the Overstreet Mall on College Street in Charlotte, NC. Mr. Harvey Heath was always happy and smiling when he passed through the Overstreet Mall. I remember saying to him on one occasion that I wished that everyone had the peace of GOD in their heart!!! May GOD bless The Heath Family during this time!
