“ Jack, Genell and family,
I am truly sorry to hear of the passing of Iva. She was truly an amazing woman and a great friend. I will always remember her willingness to serve in any capacity that she was asked to do. When my mom was over the Young Women's Day program at Mt. Carmel, she would always ask Iva and Genell to take part. Both of them were always eager to take part and share God's love. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers. May God bless you all during this difficult time. Sending love and prayers to you all.
