Passion for Living:

During his childhood and adolescence years, Jimmy attended Plato Price School in the western part of Mecklenburg County. He played the trumpet in the school band and traveled with them to participate in performances. As an adolescent in his late teens, Jimmy was enterprising and caddied at Carolina Golf Club. He taught himself to play golf and after years of playing became a scratch golfer whose skill earned him a number of trophies for winning Amateur tournaments in New Jersey including Weequahic Golf Course. His Aunt Amelia "Sister" who helped to raise him affectionately called him "James Corneilus, The Golf Player". He traveled to different states participating in Golf Tournaments often coming in first place for individual and team play. In light of his outstanding golf skills and experience he was often referred to as one of the African American pioneers in the game of Golf during the 1970's - 1980's era. The Urban League Guild and The Urban League of Central Carolinas, Inc. presented Jimmy with the "Beat the Pro" Winner Award in recognition for outstanding achievement in the 12th Annual Urban League Guild Golf Tournament, September 19, 2005. Jimmy ultimately started a career with and retired from NY City Transit Authority after 22+ years of service. Jimmy lived in Staten Island, NY with his family before moving back to his hometown of Charlotte, NC upon retirement. As a Believer in Jesus Christ as His Lord, Savior and Friend, he gained a revelation of The Holy Spirit from His Heavenly Father resulting in a heart change with a keen ability to discern spiritual matters. He Loved the revelation of "Heavenly Father's Blessing". He is a former member of St. Philips Baptist Church in Staten Island, NY and then post- retirement, St. Paul Baptist Church of Charlotte, NC. Jimmy was a member of the Golf ministry.

Joy, Love of Life and A lot of Fun:

Jimmy had such a zeal for life and a gift to make people laugh and catch them off guard with a witty joke. He loved to tell stories and then he would start laughing so hard as he was sharing. You couldn't help but laugh as he was laughing & telling a funny story. He loved to cook and was a barbecue Pitmaster as well as fish fry expert. He loved many sports and was a Carolina Panthers fan.

See you again:

James Cornelius “Rest in Peace in the presence of your Heavenly Father as well as, Savior, Jesus Christ”! We shall see you again in that City way up in the Sky. Our troubles will be over and we'll be home at last. A better day is coming, By and By.

“ James you were so well loved by your family. Although we were all like Camila’s neighbors, I did not know you personally as well as I do June, Kenneth, Reggie, Gloria, Bettye or Gwen. Gloria because you moved up North. I always followed you because your Sister always bragged about you and kept me posted even with your declining health. You set such an example for your brothers and sisters and made them proud. You now join your Mom who I loved dearly and so many other wonderful family members. Please know that the love your Sister and Jason showed for you these final years is a lesson of love for all of us. James, you did good! Get your rest and make them sweat on that heavenly Golf Course. Love you Brother. Rest in Heaven❤️🙏 Dave Cook
