“ I couldn't believe it when I heard it and it's still difficult to believe. I went to school with James at West Mecklenburg High. The thing I will remember and miss most about him is his sense of humor. He was soooooo silly and I don't know anyone who could hold back from laughing at him. He was also sweet and he had a sensitive side that wasn't revealed to everyone. All I know is that I sure do miss him and I love him. He belongs in heaven. R.I.P James. God bless the Hardrick family and anyone mourning his death.

“ *Our prayers are with you doing this difficult time. My this scripture comfort you in the days ahead.
He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strenght. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strenght; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.
Isaiah 40:29-31*

“ I was so sorry to hear of James' passing this morning when I read the newspaper. I taught him at Right Choices and saw great potential in his future, whether he saw this or not. He had a manner about him that led me to believe he would find his way. I am sorry his life was cut short before he could realize his worth. I just wanted to convey my condolences.

“ My heart is saddened at the lost of such a wonderful life. I will always remember James for his bright and beautiful smile along with his bouncing, bubbly personality. He is gone but never forgotten. Rest in Peace
