“ My heart goes out to the Simms' family. I know most of you do not remember me but I have younger pictures of James because he dated my mom(louise) back in the early 80s. James was the only man I used to call "Daddy" because I felt that father/daughter bond with him. James' favorite cars were cadillacs and nothing else. James I will miss you so so dearly and I know you are looking down along with my mom at me. Though it has been many years my heart will always have a special place in it for you too. Love you forever and to the rest of the Simms' family as well.

Lakeisha,
Thank you for your kind words. The loss of my oldest brother still hurts and hits hard to this day.

You are quite welcome. My mom loved him so and so did I. He was so nice. It hurt me too when I learned of his death. I will keep all of you in my prayers. You take care and be blessed 🙏
