

Johnnie Irene Wallace

June 22, 1926 - July 16, 2014

Ms. Johnnie Irene Wallace (Auntie-Cousin Irene) the only child of the late Ms. Sallie Wallace was born in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania June 22, 1926. Irene graduated from Central High School in New York City in 1943. She later graduated from the Julia Ward School of Needle Trade. She was awarded for proficiency in scholarship and integrity of character. She also received the service certificate for patience, attention to duty, trustworthiness, regularity, orderliness and loyalty. Irene grew up mostly away from family but came south to join us in her later years. Upon moving to Charlotte, she became a member of St. Luke Missionary Baptist Church and received her certificate of graduation from the new members class on November 11, 1995. Hence she moved to Stone Mountain, Georgia for a few years but later returned to Charlotte. She made her residence at the LaSalle Apartments until failing health caused her to go into assisted living. Irene is survived by many cousins and friends. She also leaves to cherish her memories a God-son Mr. Fred Williams and God-daughter Ms. Onnie Guy both of Charlotte, NC, her primary care giver her niece / cousin Mrs. Brenda Weathers, also of Charlotte, NC. Irene was one of the older matriarchs of the Wallace-Johnson family reunion. "Special thanks to Hospice & Palliative Care South Minister of Charlotte for your tender care during her stay with you.
