“ *Mr. Majors was an outstanding GENTLEMAN that I first met at JCSU. He was involved in many aspects of the University and a "Go To" guy. He was a great singer as well. He was always kind, optimistic and willing to go above and beyond when it came to helping and serving people. I never saw him upset and he was just an easy going person...despite what might have been going on. Mr. Majors was humble, sincere and kindhearted. If you wanted to be uplifted or get uplifted...just talk to Mr. Majors. He always saw the positive in people and situations. Life has many twists and turns and is mysterious as we approach our final destination. Now that Mr. Majors has crossed the bar (something all of us must do at life's end) we can loose him and let him go. He is now at an ETERNAL destination where we have yet to arrive. There is a brighter side somewhere and surely Mr. Joseph Thomas Majors, Sr. can walk around HEAVEN all day. "Excellence is to do a common thing in an uncommon way" (Booker T. Washington). Respectfully submitted by:
Artemus Flagg, Ph. D., LPC of Charlotte, NC.*

“ I've known Mr. Joe for most of my life by growing up on JCSU campus as a child, also well attending there for college. I had the opportunity to under his supervision in the campus post office. Mr. Joe was a dad to us all. He taught us so much about life. Mrs. Majors and Pooh, my heart and continued prayers are with you and your family. I didn't get a chance to hug you but his homegoing service was beautiful!! I love you!! Mr. Joe is gone but never forgotten.
