“ Around 1995, I met "Miss Katie" through the Grier Heights Community Center, Parenting class. "I can't tell you how to raise your child, but hopefully, I can help you love your child through their struggles and yours." My son was having great difficulty in school and life. He had been diagnosed with ADD, my mother had Alzheimer's, and my father had physical challenges. Needless to say, my world was upside down. I was having difficulties balancing motherhood and trying to take care of two aging parents. Although my husband was as supportive as he could be, there was a gap. I felt I was failing at motherhood and by God's grace, along came "Miss Katie" who had a hug that seemed to dissolve all of my anxieties. Our time did not end at the parenting classes; through the years, we continued to keep in touch. She attended my initial sermon in 2004 and I attended her one woman concert at her church a few years later. I smile through my tears as I think of her and I am forever grateful for "Miss Katie" who made such a difference. Deborah Dozier

“ Katie Clawson was my supervisor, mentor while working in the field of early childhood. She and I shared many miles together as we traveled together advocating for quality child care for children across the state and the nation. I became her driver and would say to me "Dot, it is time for you to "Drive Miss Katie". She was responsible for me coming to Child Care Resources Inc. As my supervisor, I learned so much wisdom, knowledge and passion for what I did and loved. I loved to hear her tell the stories about her children and grand children that she was so very proud of. Occasionally when I talked with her after retirement we would just talk about the "good" old days. Last fall, two of my former co-workers and I wanted to take her to lunch but she preferred that we come and have lunch at her home. We picked up lunch and sat there and talked about so many memories of us working together and she gave us an update on all the family. She will truly be missed and I want to share my condolences to the Wallace and Clawson family and know that she will never be forgotten. She is now resting in the arms of God.

“ To the Clawson/Wallace/ GHPC family.

This is a tough loss. I can truly say we will miss everything about Mrs. Katie Clawson. We will miss her wisdom, compassion, teachings, her voice and her love for Jesus. She was an awesome woman of GOD. We will miss her so much. We loved her so much. We can find comfort in knowing the Angels in Heaven done signed her name and now she is wearing her Crown. Hallelujah and Amen.
