

Kaydence Anthony Caldwell-Mason

February 27, 2022 - September 12, 2024

Kaydence Caldwell-Mason was born in Charlotte, North Carolina on February 27, 2022 to Davoshia Mason and Victoria Caldwell. Kaydence was a ray of light that filled the hearts of everyone around him. He had the most infectious laugh that made you want to laugh too. When Kaydence would wake-up in the morning he would give you the biggest smile and when you brought his breakfast to him, he would run away with excitement and climb on the couch and wait for you to bring him his food. He would eat his food and ask, "Is it good!". A true Foodie at heart! Kaydence was so smart, at 2 he was counting, saying his alphabet, his colors, and knew what sound the animals made. He had his favorite tv shows which included Miss Rachel, Blippi and Grace's Corner, "Excavator". He also enjoyed being outside and going to the playground with his mama. Kaydence also enjoyed fishing with his dad. "Hello fishy" One of Kaydence's favorite people to play with was himself. And what we mean by that is he loved standing in front of the mirror and playing with his toys, his fire truck, brushing his teeth, singing, flexing his muscles, and dancing all in front of the mirror.

When he would see people feeling down or upset, he would say in the gentlest sweetest voice, "You ok" followed by, "It's ok". He was such a happy child. Kaydence leaves to cherish his memory, Parents - Victoria Caldwell and Davoshia Mason, Grandparents - Dwayne Mason and Kellie Crawford, Karen F. Caldwell, Frank and Celestine Caldwell Sr., Honorary Grandparents – Poppa Jay and Nana Angie, Godparents - Marcus and Brittney Raines, aunts, uncles, cousins all which were very dear to him.
