

Keith Edward Cross

November 4, 1966 - June 14, 2013

Keith Edward Cross, age 46, the son of the late James and Winnie Black was born on November 4, 1966 in Charlotte, North Carolina. Keith received his education in Mecklenburg County Schools. He began his career working doing various jobs and continued to excel. He then started to work at the Marriott as a Chef for approximately 15 years. Keith enjoyed playing basketball and football with family and friends. Those cherishing memories of him include his daughter Chaquania Ingram of Charlotte, North Carolina and two grandkids Keonte Moore and Ishmael Moore. He also leaves behind two siblings, his brother Ray M. Cross and sister Kimberly Black; two special aunts Mary Gladden and Doris Spears of Charlotte, North Carolina and a host of family and friends; one of those being the Marriott Hotel which were his co-workers.

“ Dear Chaquania: No doubt, your dad appreciated the wonderful gift that life is. Our Heavenly Father and Creator cares for us and hates to see the suffering that is taking place worldwide. He promised that soon in the new world, ‘he will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things will pass away.’ And no resident will say: “I am sick.” (1 Peter 5:7; Revelation 21:3, 4; Isaiah 33:24) Jesus also told us not to marvel at the splendid hope of seeing our loved ones again “For this is the will of my Father, that everyone that beholds the Son and exercises faith in him should have everlasting life, and I will resurrect him at the last day.” (John 6:40) Can you imagine life in paradise where problems, mental anguish, sickness, and death will be no more? But until then, weeping is normal. Even the perfect man Jesus gave way to tears when his friend Lazarus died. And when we are plagued with disquieting thoughts, Jehovah God invites us to rely on him to comfort us. In Isaiah 51: 2 he said: "I myself am the One that is comforting you people." Therefore, may you and your family receive true comfort from the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation. —2 Corinthians 1:3, 4.
