

King Robinson

May 15, 1939 - April 8, 2008

CHARLOTTE - Mr King David Robinson of 1216 Pamlico Street entered into eternal life on April 8, 2008. Son of the late David Robinson and Frances Walts Robinson, "King Fish" as Mr. Robinson was affectionately called worked for many years as a Crane Operator at Volcan Materials. He leaves to cherish the memory of his life, eight sons, David Lee and James Robinson, both of Bervard, NC, Danny (Gloria) Robinson, Raymond Robinson, Richard E. Robinson, William Robinson, King Robinson, all of Charlotte, NC, and Ricky Marrow of Monroe, NC; a sister Ruby Belk of Charlotte, NC; two brothers Jim Robinson and Henry Robinson, both of Charlotte, NC; grandchildren Issac Montgomery, Sharon Montgomery, Shaquill Robinson, Raymond Hall, Ryeann Robinson, Daniel Robinson, David Robinson, Keasia Robinson, Jianta Robinson, ShaQuelle Marsh, Latoya Young, Laprsha Young, Karnel Huntley, Taseanna Robinson, Lakayla Robinson, DaviAnn Peele, Landon Robinson, Malik Huntley, David Peele, Jerry Robinson and Jeremey Robinson; great-grandchidren, issac Wilson Elijah Hall, Raymel Avila, Jaymel Avila, and A'nalah Montgomery; a host of other relatives and friends, including a special friend, Kathleen Jeter of Charlotte, Nc. "Don't forget to sign the guestbook"