“Wow, is my first response to a seemingly great young man..I had the pleasure of meeting him at my house while having a cook-out and asked if he wanted something to drink and he said yes. I showed him the frige, cups, ice and food just in case he was hungry. Before you know it, I had put him to work with the other boys, putting out the trash, etc. He was a great kid and this truly goes to show that we all need to get our lives right with God no matter what your age is..The Son of Man is coming as a thief in the night, no man knows the hour or the day..Family be encouraged and know to be absent in the body is to be present with the Lord, he's in a better place.”

“My prayers go out to the family of Reko. He is in a better place and his death should be an example to us of the shortness of life. Treat each day like it's your last for you never know when you will close your eyes for the last time.”
