“ To my Aunts; cousins, and family; my hearts breaks because of our lost but rejoices in know that uncle Skeet is with Aunt Wilma and not in any pain or discomfort. I am thankful for all the childhood memories. Most of all I’m glad I was able to move back home and be able to see his smile, hear another joke, be able to tell him that I loved him, also to be able to help dad go out and see him once more. Please call and keep in touch with me 🙏❤️❤️🙏😭

“ My Uncle Skeet was a very special man for two reasons. First, he was born on Christmas Day. Second, he shared his birthday with my Dad, Alex. I would always joke to say "there were so many of them, that the two had to share a birthday".

During his illness over the years, he always remained positive with a very outgoing personality. I will miss my one on one visits with him followed by the dial-prayer calls to Aunt Burnette. Rest in Peace, Sandra
