“ I remember Uncle Larry as a child. He always lit up the room with his smile and laughter. He always exemplified a man of strength, kindness and class. May his treasured memory live forever within his family and loved ones.

“ My dad was a pretty great guy. He loved me I was his baby girl. He always wanted to protect me. I remember when I was younger and he taught my older brother and I how to dance, It was so fun learning. I remember when I moved to New Jersey with him and went to Fords middle school he had me playing with the boys basketball team because they didn't have a girls team. He was a great griller. He would go outside with snow on the ground and grill burgers and oh were they the best. I miss him, he has grandkids that he hadn't met yet. He had things I guess I felt like he still needed to do but I know he was tired. Daddy I love you and you are missed. Love your baby girl.
