“ Dear Deborah and family, Our hearts goes out to you during this difficult time and hope that fond memories of Mrs. Wadsworth will bring you some comfort. As I write this I am reminded of all of the funny things she would say, how she enjoyed being sassy and frank and how she was always a diva with her nails done. Before she would leave to go home after a visit at Jacquie's house she would stop right in the foyer and talk another ten or fifteen minutes, with you patiently waiting at her side. She always said thank you, she had a wonderful time, told us we were beautiful and that she loved us. We will miss her presence, but know that she is in a better place and totally free. Deborah, we are so sorry that we cannot be by your side right now, but are with you in spirit and will continue to pray for you and your family. Love, Theresa, Ms. Sheila, and Mr. Johnnie
