

Linda Faye Minter-Green

February 13, 1950 - July 21, 2015

Linda Faye Minter Green, affectionately known as “Mama Green”, entered eternal rest peacefully on Tuesday, July 21, 2015 in Tampa, Florida.

Linda was born on February 13, 1950 in Durham, N.C to Ethel Mae Bynum of Pittsboro, NC and the late Alfred Eddie Minter of Sanford, NC. She graduated from Chapel Hill High School and Johnson C. Smith University, where she excelled both academically and athletically. On June 29, 1974, she married David Green, Sr. and to this union three delightful energetic boys, who are her PRIDE and JOY, were born. Although Linda reside in Tampa, FL, her membership remain at Friendship Missionary Baptist Church in Charlotte.

Linda was always a hard worker and dedicated employee. From 1972- 1989 she served as a customer service representative for Eastern Airlines reservation’s department. She was recognized on several occasions as an exceptional employee, and built many lifelong friends whom she considers family to date. From 1989-1993 she transferred her leadership, tenacity, and drive to a startup Multi-Level Marketing Company called L’Rome International, where she supervised a sales and marketing team. In 1993, she became an Administrative Assistant at FDY, INC. catering service where she completed her working career.

Linda’s interests over the years included being a mother to ALL! She was the team Mom, served as PTA President at Briarwood Elementary School, and held numerous board roles on the Charlotte Youth Athletic Club (CYAC), an organization that was the cornerstone for youth athletics for the neighborhood kids.

Linda was the epitome of God's LOVE! She loved unconditionally regardless of race, creed, or color, and never met a stranger. Her affection for people was infectious; she could bring the masses together in spite of any differences. She had a huge heart, comforting smile, vibrant personality, and a joy for life that attracted all that she came in contact with.

Linda always enjoyed entertainment with family and friends. She had an opportunity to spend her last days doing what she loved best: spending time with her family at her grandsons' basketball tournaments. As an active parent and grandparent she never missed a play by play in her children's lives and was always PROUD of their accomplishments on and off the field. Those who know Linda knew that her children and grandchildren were her world, and were her reason for living.

Linda leaves to cherish her precious memories: Mom, Ethel Mae Bynum of Charlotte, her three adult sons: David, Jr. of Charlotte, NC, Darin (Nena) of Tampa, Florida, and Derek of Secaucus, New Jersey; six grandchildren: Daja, Danae, Darin Jr, Trey, Dayana, and Dailyn; one great-granddaughter, Ta'Kyrah Morrison; siblings Alfreda Watson of Charlotte, NC, Eddie Minter of Sanford, NC, and Larry Minter of Bynum, NC; a special daughter-like niece, Lorie Minter & other loving Nieces & Nephews, & a host of Friends.

Still missing you.....can't imagine that your work here was complete, but our Maker never makes mistakes. I'm still planning that "old girls" getaway we talked about, but you were going to be the glue to hold it all together.

*Love you,

Derek Green (one of the best people I have met in my life) sent me this video this morning after I called him about his mom passing 5 years ago. This video made me cry with joy knowing how much impact one person can have on a family. To have a great mom obviously makes a difference because this woman raised great men of value, courage and love. I only wish I met your mom Derek! Thanks for sharing this!

My sis Lin was Great. She was a great daughter, great granddaughter, A Great Sister, a great friend, a great wife, a great sister in law, a great cousin, a great friend, a great mom, a great grandmother, a great worker, a great speaker(Lin always spoke her mind), a great survivor. Now the Lord said you have done all of these great things on earth. Now I must take you in my heavenly arms and bring you home to rest. I will always love you Lin for the sister that you were. You made me be proud to be your baby brother.

“ *David, Darin, Derek, and other family members: So sorry for your loss. Thanks be to God for a mother's love! It is so hard to be physically separated from your mother; but remember that you will always have a part of her in your veins, your heart, your personality, your spirit, and your memories. Therefore, you will never be separated from your love one. May God bestow His peace upon you and give all of you the strength to endure your loss.
