

Lisa Renee Idlet

January 18, 1966 - March 18, 2026

Lisa Renee Idlet was born on January 18, 1966 to Lula Mae Idlet and Bud Wiley in Brooklyn, New York. Lisa attended South Shore High School in Brooklyn and started her spiritual journey at St. Timothy Holy Church in Brooklyn. Lisa went on to become an educator, a nanny and caretaker of children. She was a teacher in Charlotte, NC at the time of her passing. Lisa was a woman of many gifts: she was a teacher, a model, a published author, a singer, a spoken word artist, a poet and a gifted hairstylist. Creativity was not just something she practiced; it was who she was. Whether she was writing, drawing or performing, Lisa expressed herself authentically and unapologetically. Lisa was known for her ability to pour into others. She had a gift for offering the right word at the right time—a prayer, a passage or a simple reminder to keep going. Even in her final days, she continued to look to the Lord, in word and spirit. After moving to Charlotte, North Carolina, Lisa joined New Foundation Church International, where she continued to grow in faith and fellowship. A proud Christian, Lisa often leaned on scripture for strength and guidance, holding close the words of Psalm 91 as a source of comfort and protection. Lisa was preceded in death by her mother, Lula Mae Idlet and father, Bud Wiley, and sister Brenda Jean Idlet. She leaves to cherish her memory brothers Michael Idlet, Kyle Idlet, Anthony Idlet and sister Michelle Idlet, as well as many nieces and nephews, aunts and uncles, and many loving cousins and friends. Lisa will be deeply missed and forever remembered.
