“ I was sad to hear about Lloyd’s death. I was his History teacher at Garinger and later his friend. Lloyd had an infectious spirit. Rest in peace. My sincere condolences to his family.

“ I met Lloyd 10 years ago when we hired him to pick me and my friend Shawna, up at the Charlotte Airport. We were coming to pick up a limo we bought for our funeral home in Canada and Lloyd drove us from Charlotte to Camden that night. We had such fun during that ride, we got lost, Shawna made us stop at some scary place for her to buy cigs, I said "see if they have wine when you go inside". The place was pretty seedy so Lloyd and I stayed in the car with the doors locked LOL. We became friends immediately. He was going to come and visit us here in Canada. Lloyd was a wonderful person. I just learned of his passing, I am so sad to hear this news, and that we wont be able to have him come to visit us here, and spend some time with him. We kept in touch on facebook, and had several video chats over the years. Sincere condolences to Lloyd's family and friends. Rest in peace Lloyd,

“ This week has been one of the most difficult times in my life. Lloyd was a great father, grandfather and one of a kind son to his mother. Lloyd loved music from the first time we've meet he enjoyed singing and making home videos. Despite the fact that we were not in a relationship anymore we remaind friends till the end. Lloyd I will truly miss you. I know you are not here in the flesh but your spirit will live on forever. Love Ness

“ To the Williams family, we are truly saddened to hear of Llyod’s sudden passing. We are sending our most loving and sincere condolences to you during this time. Lloyd hung out at our house back in the day on Crestview Dr. as a youth. He grew up to be an amazing individual! I was always excited to run into him from time to time over the years. He was truly a God-gifted man and his absence will surely be felt in this earth realm. Earth’s loss is heaven’s gain. We are praying God will strengthen you and carry you both now and in the days ahead. May He grant you comfort and peace which passeth understanding knowing Lloyd is resting in the bosom of the Savior. SIP Lloyd. On behalf of the Chisholm Family
