

Lorraine Wilson

September 17, 1953 - December 21, 2021

Ms. Lorraine Wilson was born September 17, 1953 in Charlotte North Carolina to the late Frances Mae Wilson and Alonzo Wilson. She departed her life on Tuesday December 21, 2021 at Novant Health with her daughter, friends, and family by her side.

Lorraine accepted Christ at an early age at Sweet Hope Baptist Church where she learned about the things of God. She later joined The Church of the Open Door where she served as an Officer/Trustee for many years.

Lorraine completed her formal education at Chester Senior High with honors and the ability to graduate a year earlier than expected. From there, she elected to matriculate at Kings College earning an Associate's Degree in Computer Science. Lorraine retired as a Traveling Manager for Wells Fargo in 2007, and after retirement started her own full time Signing Agency with "Wilson's Notary to Go". Lorraine was well known for her ability to "work with numbers" and assisted many friends, relatives, and patrons with tax preparation and bookkeeping.

Lorraine was preceded in death by her parents, the father of her only child, Elliott Lee Bost (Pete), her sister Bessie Yvonne Nelson-Khaalid (Shawgru), and her brother Mr. Tyrone Warren.

She leaves to mourn her loss her daughter Manesha C. Wilson (Jermaine), two brothers Tommy Wilson (Kathy), and Lehnard Wilson. Three sisters, Deborah Naomi Smith (Scott), Mae Frances Thompson, Dellia Hanks (David) one Great Aunt Carrie Mae Shelton, and a host Godchildren, Grate Godchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ I will always remember Lorraine. She was one of the first people I met when I came to Charlotte. We have a lot of history together. She has always been the smart lady that was good with numbers. She did a lot of my taxes for me. She was a friend. She will be missed.
