

Lottie Mae Dorsey

December 19, 1936 - January 20, 2026

Lottie Mae Dorsey was born to Margaret Wright in Charlotte NC. Lottie went to West Charlotte High School and attended Carver College. She then went on to work for the Charlotte Observer. In her twenties, Lottie moved to New York with her best friend Jan Krider. She attended St. Francis College in NY, where she studied bookkeeping and Gregorian Chants. Lottie loved the Catholic Church and was a member of Our Lady of Mercy in Brooklyn for many years and also directed the choir. Lottie was an excellent bookkeeper, first for a black owned daycare center and nursery school (Herman Hannaham Day Care Center), then for Merrill Lynch and also for Our Lady of Mercy. Upon retiring, Lottie moved back to her hometown of Charlotte and resumed her membership at Our Lady of Consolation. She was a member of the Golden Wings and the Intercessors. Lottie loved to travel, loved music and very family orientated. Lottie found the strength, the patience, the stubborn toughness to bring 4 children into a rough world, living in a rougher neighborhood but she always found time for God. No tragedy or emergency kept her from Sunday worship. No Open School night was missed. Lottie was everywhere and Lottie was all. Lottie was preceded in death by her brother Samuel Mack, sister Margie Mack, daughter Linda Dorsey and her grandson Troy JaVaughn Dorsey. She leaves to cherish her memory: Daughters: Margaret Ellington-Eldert and Christina Dorsey, Son: Steven Dorsey, Brother: Philip Obediah Wright, Grandchildren: Ernest William Goodson, Diandra Dorsey, Tyquasia Windley, Chrisynda Dorsey, Great Grandchildren: Omari Phillips, Milani

Windley, Leon Alexander Calhoun, Carter Goodson, Collin Goodson, Nieces:
Karen Mack, Danelle and host of other relatives and friends.
