“ RIP to my Auntie Lou who I loved dearly and will deeply miss her. Auntie you was always trying to explain to all of us that one day we will have to die and always told most of us that would listen to you that salvation in the Lord was the answer. I am glad that I had an auntie that love the Lord the way you did. Now you are resting in the arms of our savior no more heart aches and pain. No more carrying that Oxygen Machine tank around. I will forever love my Auntie Lou Bertha Medina. I will miss your beautiful smile that would light up a room when you enter. Auntie Lou I will not cry for you because I know you are in heaven with the angels and your beloved Savior.
