

Louise Norman Huntley

December 26, 1926 - January 18, 2014

Mrs. Louise Norman Huntley departed this earthly life on Saturday, January 18, 2014 at the Mooresville Center (Genesis) Nursing Home in Mooresville, NC after a short illness. Her life of eighty-seven years began on December 16, 1926 in Huntersville,, NC where she was born to the late Oscar Patrick Huntley and Henrietta Potts Huntley, who took their flight ahead of her; also three brother Thomas Huntley, Reverend Paris Oscar Huntley, Sr. and Harry S. Huntley, Sr.; four sisters Carrie Huntley, Essie L. Cornelius, Bridie Mae Huntley and Evangelist Mable Huntley Gaston.

Louise graduated from Huntersville High School in 1944 and later on in life, married John Norman, her faithful husband until death and to this union a son was adopted, Anthony M. Norman.

Louise was a very special loving mother, sister, auntie and friend to all and she really loved children. Louise was a hard worker in the Charlotte Mecklenburg school System for nearly 32 years of dedication as a Cook and retired as Manager over the cafeteria. She was a faithful and devoted member of Catawba Presbyterian Church, where she served as Secretary of the Sunday School Department, Treasurer of the UPW Women's Ministry, a member of The Chancel Choir and The Evangelism Ministry and Hospitality. Louise was also a life time member of Treasure Honorary Presbyterian Women's USA and she also held an office as Elder of the Session of the Church, a Trustee Member Honorary lifetime member of The Presbyterian Women USA. Louise also loved baseball and basketball.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories one son Anthony M. Norman of Charlotte, NC; one sister Reverend Ardelia Huntley Wilson of Baltimore, MD; one brother Furman "Pete" Huntley of the home; three sister-in-laws Mildred Huntley of Charlotte, NC, Sarah Huntley of Stanly, NC and Mary Huntley of Statesville, NC; two brother-in-laws Frank (Georgia Mae) Norman and Ed Norman of Stanly, NC; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. Special thanks to Cathy Hicks for her loving care that was shown to our sister and Auntie over the years.

Cemetery Details

Northlake Memorial Gardens

11001 Alexandriana Road
Huntersville, NC

Tribute Wall

“ Charlene Gaston lit a candle in memory of Louise Norman Huntley ”

charlene gaston - January 23, 2014 at 07:19 AM