“ Lula, I remember seeing you in 2020 and neither us knew it would be the last time we will get to reacquaint ourselves with the pass since we had last seen each other. I went back to the same place we last talk reacquainting ourselves hoping to see you again and finish our conversation. I just learned today you had pass away. I want your family, friends and Greater Mt. Sinai to know you were a genuine loving woman. Whatever came your way you handled it with dignity and much pride. You was a mother to my son as well inviting him to stop by your home anytime to be with you and your family.

RIP !!!

*Sincerely,
Joy H. Walker*
