

Luvenia Anderson

April 27, 1949 - May 7, 2024

Miss Luvenia Anderson, the daughter of the late Willie and Charlotte Anderson, was born on April 27, 1949 in Charlotte, NC. She transitioned to a home of eternal rest, on May 7, 2024 at the Novant Presbyterian Hospital, in the Harris Hospice Care Unit. She was the sixth child of seven siblings. Luvenia attended Plato Price High School and Olympic High. She, in her youth, was mainly a “free spirited person” who moved around a lot; but never failed to, periodically, find time to stop by and check on her family members. Being a trusting, giving and forgiving person, she chose to live a life of simplicity; knowing her family and friends would always be there for her, if needed. She always loved family gatherings; and would call well in advance, to find out the plans for next upcoming holiday event. Luvenia was employed with The Charlotte Observer and did mostly domestic work. She was previously married to Leroy Coleman. Luvenia is preceded in death by her brother, James Johnson; sister, Betty Anderson Crowder. “Lu” leaves to cherish many loving memories: four sisters, Mary A. Hill (William), Janie A. Thompson, Pearline Anderson, Willie Mae Kai Tongi, and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.
