

Maceo Cobb Meade Jr.

July 18, 1947 - May 15, 2013

On the 18th day of July, in Bristol, Virginia, the year 1947, God gave a gift of love to the late Maceo Cobb Meade Sr. and Dorothy Hazzard Meade in the life of Maceo Cobb Meade Jr., the first of their four children. "Macy", as he was commonly known, attended Wurzburg High School in Germany, Morristown Jr. College in Tennessee and became a graduate of North Carolina A&T State University with a BS in Political Science in 1968. After graduation, he moved to New York City and worked for Metropolitan Life Insurance Company for 20 years as a Research Analyst. After retirement, Macy relocated to Greensboro, North Carolina, the home of his Alma Mata & his daughter. Macy enjoyed all things sports and was a lifelong fan of the New York Yankees, New York Knicks and The New York Football Giants (a love he passed down to his daughter). Maceo considered himself an "undercover detective" bragging that he invested many, many hours watching his favorite's, The X-Files, Law and Order and The Closer episodes. Maceo also kept his wits about him by watching Jeopardy daily and completing every crossword puzzle he could find.

Macy believed in helping others. He was caring, humorous, kind, generous, loving, compassionate, cool, and let's be honest, ornery when he wanted to be. Even though he was a very private person, Macy would engage in conversation on almost any topic if you interacted with him first. Maceo was highly intelligent, his honesty was his crown. Maceo was loved by so many and will be greatly missed. He leaves to cherish his precious memories and to

“ I was really shocked when Mr. Meade pass a way. He was my neighbor on Fairview st. in greensboro. I just read his Obituary in the paper and was amazingly surprised to see what he had done in his life. He was a very quit man and kept to himself. I had offered him rides at times and he would nicely decline. I really didnt know him that well but he was a very good neighbor. We will miss you. My prayers and thoughts are with his family. God bless you all.

*Sincerly,
