

Magdalene Pettis Gordon

December 26, 1946 - June 8, 2013

Magdalene Pettis Gordon was born December 26, 1946 in Charlotte, North Carolina to the late Louis Pettis Sr. and Willie Mae Browner Pettis. On Saturday evening, June 8, 2013 she exchanged her earthly home for her heavenly home. At an early age she joined Williams Tabernacle C.M.E. Church. As an adult she dedicated her life at Parkwood Institutional C.M.E. Church. Magdalene was educated in the Charlotte Mecklenburg-Schools and was a graduate of Second Ward High School Class of 1965. She attended Charlotte Business College. She worked at Hudson Hosiery Mill 20 years and she worked at Goodwill until her health declined. Magdalene enjoyed talking to people, she never met a stranger. She had her own special way of making people laugh. She enjoyed cooking, working crossword puzzles and reading. She was a die-hard Carolina Panther's fan and looked forward to watching them play on Sundays.

Magdalene was preceded in death by her son, William Joseph Gordon Jr., brothers, Robert Lee Pettis and William Henry Pettis. She will truly be missed by brothers, Louis Pettis, Jr. (Betty) of Hickory, North Carolina, and John Pettis (Nellie) , sisters, Annie P. McCaskill, Ruth P. Marshall (SurVella) and Linda P. Blount all of Charlotte, North Carolina. Seven nieces, four nephews, four great-nieces, two great-nephews. God-daughter's Shirlnetta Gordon Greene, Deirdre Davis of Charlotte, North Carolina, cousins and host of relatives and friends.
