

Mamie Mills

March 7, 2013

Mamie Mills, passed away at the Brian Center Nursing Home on Reddman Road in Charlotte, North Carolina on March 7, 2013. Mamie P. Mills as we all know her was born Mamie Lee Payne on April 1, 1928 to Mack Payne (December 12, 1930) and Willie Belle Weaks (July 14, 1998). Mamie was the third of four children. She graduated from Reid High School, Belmont, North Carolina in 1946, attended barber school and was a barber in the downtown Charlotte area. Ms. Mills later submerged into an over 35 year career as a Registered Nurse (RN). While living in Belmont, she would commute to Charlotte where she was a nurse at Mercy Hospital, Presbyterian Hospital and later with in-home patient care (private duty). In 1984, she married World War II Veteran, Elbergus Mills of Monroe, North Carolina (December 23, 1990). Mamie was a member of the Greenville Memorial Mass Choir and Missionary Club. She will be missed and is survived by son, Larry Dean Duff, Sr. of Georgia; step-son, Napoleon Duff of Jacksonville, NC; grand daughters, Celeste Woodard of Gastonia, NC and Anjanette Duff of Charlotte, NC (currently deployed); grandsons, Larry Dean Duff, Jr. and Derek Duff both of Charlotte, NC; great-grandchildren; Rodney Floyd, Veronica Clifton, Hydiyah and Sunnia Harris, Demarion Duff, Anthony Odom, Jr. and Schkina Duff; daughter-in-law, Ruth Duff and a host of extended family.
