

Mary Russell Cooke

December 19, 1920 - February 13, 2018

Mrs. Mary Russell Cooke, the daughter of the late Mrs, Hulda Jane Batts-Alexander and Roddrick Moore, she was born December 19, 1920 in Baltimore Maryland. At 97 years old she entered her eternal rest on February 13, 2018 in Charlotte NC.

Mary accepted Christ as her Lord and savior at an early age and at the time of her death she was a member of Manhollow Missionary Baptist church.

Mary was married to her loving husband the late Walter Cooke and they resided on Edgcombe throughout their union. Mary was also preceded in Death by her only son Edward Martiner McClammy who she loved very much.

Mary's transition leaves a void in the hearts of many. A grandson Eddie Kelly (Angela Kelly wife) who resides in Summerville SC, a granddaughter Tracey McClammy of Charlotte NC, three great grandchildren, Christian DeVan Pulley who resides in San Diego California (US Navy), Vontrey Martiner Pulley of Charlotte NC and Klevar Royal Mason of Charlotte NC. She leaves a niece Delores Salliey of New York and a nephew Roy B. Morrison of Charleston SC. Great nieces and nephews Clarence Salliey of Columbus OH, Clyde Salliey of Conyers GA, Rochelle Salliey of Columbus OH, Anthony Salliey of NJ and Otis Salliey of Greenville SC, Mignon Salliey of Charlotte NC and a host of other nieces and nephews as well as other dear relatives and friends.

Mary was preceded in death by her parents Hulda Alexander and Rodrick Moore, her husband Walter Cooke her beloved son whom she affectionally call Martiner. A sister Alice Hardison, a brother Wilbert Morrison a niece Ida (Penny) Ingram and a nephew George Hardison. Mary is truly having a celebration with her beloved family with whom she spoke of with love and affection always.

Mary is enjoying eternal celebration in heaven and her spirit lives joyously in all of us who will always cherish her memory. When we think of Mary joy bells will ring in our soul.

Sleep in peace my precious angel we will always love you, your Grandchildren Tracey and Eddie!
