

McDonald Parker

July 28, 1934 - April 12, 2013

McDonald Parker born in Stony Point, NC resided in Charlotte, NC. after many years in Brooklyn, NY with his family. He quietly slipped away at 6:30 p.m. in Hospice Center at Presbyterian Hospital. He was preceded in death by his grandson Norman Gilmore, three brothers Wade Parker, Jimmie (Dolly) and Arthur, Jr., his parents Perdie and Arthur Parker. He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife of many years Ella Parker of the home; a daughter Donna and a son Allan Parker of Brooklyn, NY; stepdaughter Barbara Williams and family of Dillon, SC; a great-grandson Cordell Gilmore of Charlotte, NC; a sister Faye Little of Charlotte, NC; three brothers Stanley Parker (Connie), Myron Parker (Earnestine) and Johnnie Parker (Maxine); sister-in-laws Eula Ward, Annie Dupree, Ann Calhoun and Tommie Dunlap; brother-in-laws Moses Peterkin, George Peterkin all from Bennettsville, SC; a special aunt Mary Williams of Greensboro and a special friend and family Bobbie Nesbit of Troutman, NC; and a host of family and friends. His passion was being outside with nature and it showed. He will truly be missed by many.
