“ Family, I am so sorry for your loss. Mr. Harris was a remarkable man in the fact that his work ethic was rock solid, he not only believed in getting the job done but he wanted it done right. He loved Bo Jangles cuisine, evidenced by him on most days that we spoke in passing (he worked nights I work days) by the cup and bag from the restaurant. He was a man who truly loved the Lord, had no reluctance in placing his concerns into the care of the Lord and was a tremendous admirer of his mother. Again, my sincerest condolences.
