

Michael Sheldon Reid

June 6, 1979 - March 1, 2025

Michael Sheldon Reid was born on June 6, 1979, to Vernon Reid and Waverlyn Ramsey Reid. He embraced eternal life on March 1, 2025. Michael graduated from North Mecklenburg High School in 1997. Michael was very popular and a super star track athlete. Upon completion of high school, Michael went straight into the workforce. He worked at Bryant Lamination in Mooresville, North Carolina for many years. After deciding to take a different career path, Michael worked for Atlantic Commercial Caseworks in Charlotte, North Carolina until his untimely death. One day an interest sparked in Michael for motorcycles which led to his ultimate passion for bike riding. He was a member of several bike clubs: Ghost Ryders, Untamed Kingz, serving as President, and Sin City Disciples. Michael was proud of the community service that each club participated in such as feeding the homeless, back to school drives, holiday festivities for children and other various fund raisers. He was excited about making a difference in the community.

Michael was affectionately known as "Reid Boy". He was loved dearly by family, friends, and the biker community. He had a contagious smile; Michael always laughed and joked with those he loved. During football season he loved watching and cheering for his favorite team, the reigning Super Bowl LIX Champions, The Philadelphia Eagles. Michael was preceded in death by his grandparents, Bernie Junior Ramsey and Faye Sherrill Ramsey, as well as his aunt, Angela L. Reid. He leaves to cherish his fond memories, his four children: Aniya M. Lyons, Michael D. Reid, Myesha S. Reid, and Ty'Meir M.

Reid; one grandson, Va'Monte Williams. His Parents Vernon and Waverlyn Reid. His brothers: Vernon T. Reid (Jennifer), Bryan A. Reid (Ashley), and Adrian J. Reid (Tiny).
