

Michael Phillip Rudisill Sr.

January 15, 1974 - May 30, 2026

Mr. Michael Phillip Rudisill Sr. affectionately known as Phil was born on January 15, 1974 in Charlotte, NC to the late Deborah Denise Rudisill and Jesse Phillip Harris. Michael left this life to join the lord on May 30, 2026. He lived in Charlotte his entire life with various trips to Biscoe, NC, California, and New York/New Jersey to be with family. Over his adolescent and teen years he frequented many schools, Marie G Davis, Kennedy, Olympic and Myers Park. Throughout his life he was known for his kindness, generosity, his humor and more recently his strength. He was a devoted husband, father, grandfather and friend. He found joy in making others laugh. He never met a stranger and had a way of making people happy. He was a light in this world and all who knew him felt his love. He is preceded in death by his mother Deborah Rudisill, his father Jesse Harris, his grandparents Curtis and Sarah Harris, and Rudy and Isabelle Dorsey. He is survived by his loving and caring wife Andria Taylor-Rudisill, his children; sons Michael and Nathaniel Rudisill, his daughters Ciara Taylor and Kiana Harrell, his grandchildren Aiden Ervin and Aniyla Sinclair, his brother Curtis Harris and sister Angel Sykes, nephews Jahlil, Jahdari, Jordan and Carson, his family in love Annie Warnock, Khadija Muhammad, Tony James, Phillip and Juliana James, Adrian Cunningham, and host of endeared aunts, uncles, cousins, friends, and honorary brothers and sisters. Those who knew him will remember that he always had a joke and a smile, and his presence gave a lasting impact that affected everyone fortunate enough to know him.

“ I met Phil through his son, PJ. I remember smiling as Phil hugged PJ and told him that he loved him. PJ is not a man of many words and I stated to PJ, "Look at your daddy and tell him that you love him, too! PJ replied quickly and got into the vehicle just as fast as I thought to myself that more black Fathers should embrace their sons in that manner! Much love and many blessings to the family.
