

Mildred Clay Springs

January 9, 1932 - July 3, 2014

Mildred Springs passed away on July 3, 2014 at Carrington Place in Matthews North Carolina. She was born January 9, 1932 in Matthews to the late Odell and Allie Clay.

Mildred grew up in Matthews in the home of her parents shared with her siblings, Eckerd Clay, Milo Clay, John Clay and her little sister Bessie Clay. She attended Matthews Elementary School. Mildred bore five children, Carolyn Stewart, James Edward Clay, William Franklin Jackson, Gail Victoria Fair and Donald Lewis Fincher. In 1962 Mildred moved to New York and took on a job as a hotel maid. With her late husband James Springs they cared for Gail, William and James. Mildred later owned and operated a news stand. After the passing of her husband and daughter, Mildred moved back to North Carolina and settled in Charlotte.

Mildred enjoyed home decorating, fashion, collecting coins, socializing with friends and cooking southern dishes. Mildred was also very particular about keeping her home nice and neat. Mildred has finished her duties here on earth. While her spirit returns to the master of the universe her heavenly father prepares her for another journey. The love and memories of her will last forever within our hearts as she is laid to rest. She will be sorely missed. Mildred is survived by one brother: John Clay Columbia S.C., three children: Carolyn Stewart of Charlotte N.C., William Jackson and James Clay of Matthews N.C., a host of grand children and great grand children, many nieces and nephews. With a special mention of Shari Clay Hope, a niece that was there every time she needed someone.
