“ Rocky,
Words can not express just how sorry I am to hear about the loss of your son. My prayer is that you and your family are comforted by God's love and that He will give you peace and strength through this very difficult time.
God Bless & Keep You.

“ It is so hard to understand the loss of a loved one, and a child is the hardest of all.

My memories of Clint are still vivid, even though he's been away from home for such a long time. He was always, and I mean always, so friendly and nice, a true testament to the way he was raised. My fondest memory was the summer after I lost Bob. Clint was home and came walking down the street. He saw me struggling to move mulch from the truck. He crossed the street and started unloading it for me, then moved it where I needed it. When I thanked him, he said, with his happy grin, "No Problem", and I knew he really meant it. He was a great person whose time came too early as happens much too often.

Please know that I am so sad at the loss of Clint and will remember your family in my prayers in the hopes that God can help ease the pain of your trek through the grieving process.

Please do not hesitate to let me know if there is anything I can do to help your family as it will be "No Problem", no problem at all.

“ Morris and Linda, we extend our deepest heartfelt sympathy to you and the family. Our thoughts and prayers are with you in this time of sorrow. Remember to take your burdens and sorrows to the Lord in prayer because Matthew 5:4 says, "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted."

The more you need and call upon the Lord, the closer He will be. Your faith, belief, and trust in the Lord will ease the hurt each of you feel. May God continually bless and keep each of you.
