“ Mom...
i miss you so much words can't began to say,i miss sitting on the porch laughing with you.. telling tails of your pass with you..remembering how you loved me in spite of my wrongs..how you allowed me to grow into the woman I am without judging me..watching you age as you watched me..taking care of our kids as we ran free...all that and more made you such a loving mother ..i just thank GOD you where the mother for me.

“ Nana loving you was so easy. I miss you SOOOOO much. Always seeing you at my mom's house on Sundays and our little group enjoying our Friday night outing. Missing your smile, I'm just missing you!!! I have my days and nights when it's hard to stop crying. Knowing you are in a better place, no pain, no .suffering makes it easier to except. WE LOVE AND MISS YOU.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of you I don't know where to begin...begging my mother to spend the night, you teaching me how to pick greens and shuck corn on your porch, enjoying Sunday dinner with the whole family at your house, you making me stop at the store to buy Dayton slushies from the store before we got to Mama's house...I could go on and on. You taught our whole family what it means to be selfless and enjoy every day God blessed us with and we will never forget. I have cried every day since you left, some tears are because I miss you so much, others are tears of joy because I know you are finally resting. I love you Nana!!
