

Omoi Akim Forde

May 3, 1993 - May 29, 2016

Omoi Akim Forde was born on the beautiful island of St. Thomas, US Virgin Islands on May 3, 1993, to Malaika Herman and Gary Forde. He was the third of five boys born to his mother.

Omoi started his early education at Joseph Gomez Elementary School in St. Thomas and continued at Hornets Nest Elementary in Charlotte, NC. He then went on to Ranson Middle School and later graduated from West Mecklenburg High School. Upon graduation, Omoi attended the Art Institute of Charlotte to study his love for Culinary Arts. Even though he did not complete his degree, he loved cooking and eating (lol).

In 2013, after he learned that he was expecting his first true love, A'mani Shariah Forde. Omoi started working for Piedmont Airlines where he remained employed until his passing. He loved going to work every day.

Omoi had two passionate loves; his daughter A'mani and his motorcycle; as was evident in his words and actions. He also loved his closely knitted kind-hearted, cordial, soft-spoken, jovial; that was Omoi. These traits were all too obvious when he assisted coaching with the Northside Hurricanes Football Team.

He will be sorely missed by his family and friends. Omoi is now resting in the arms of his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. May his soul rest in eternal peace.
