“ My heart is heavy writing this tribute. Allen was a neighbor, a friend to my brother Eddie Ingram and such a respectable young man. He was always handsome, like all the men in his family, with a beautiful smile that he shared all the time. He was a great athlete and occupied his life with living. There was only good to be shared of this young king. My family, the Ingram, Williams Family, mourns with the Grant Family and we send our deeply heartfelt love to his mother, wife, children, siblings and family. May Allah forgive him and grant him the highest Paradise and may we keep his name moist on our lips in remembrance and prayer.
