“ I am not a pechraer, but I teach ladies classes. My vote goes for funerals. It's a hand's down win, win celebration if you are doing a funeral' for someone who has fought the good fight. It?s not a funeral at all but a Great Celebration that they have made it across the finish line to receive the Gold.' I would quote lots of scriptures to prove this point, but since Preachers are commenting ...! From OT to NT God shows He has a totally different view point on death. Why am I so sure of this???? I faced a no win (that?s removing God from the equation) fight with cancer, stared death in the face and realized that for a Christian, a funeral is a great victory
