

Richard McCallum

July 2, 1962 - April 26, 2016

Richard McCallum, born in Baltimore, Maryland, was the son of Betty McCallum and Jason McCallum, Jr. He departed this life on Tuesday, April 26, 2016, in Manhattan, NY.

Richard, known to family and friends as “Ricky” attended Walbrook Senior High School and received his GED from the State of Maryland in 1987.

Richard enlisted in the Maryland National Guard and as a Reserve of the United States Army National Guard for eight years. Richard graduated from the Light Wheel Vehicle Mechanics School from Fort Jackson, South Carolina and was a certified truck driver. While in Baltimore, Richard worked for the Baltimore City Department of Public Works, Provident Savings Bank, and HBI Warehouse. In Charlotte he worked for Samaritan’s Purse and Ray’s Roofing Company.

Ricky was a jovial person who loved to tell jokes and entertained everyone at all family gatherings and would keep everyone laughing with his storytelling.

Richard is survived by his mother, Betty McCallum (Charlotte), father, Jason McCallum, Jr. (New Jersey); children, Rick McCallum (Charlotte), Destiny McCallum Barr (Keon) (Maryland), Ryan McCallum (Maryland), Demetric McCallum (Maryland); one brother, Jason McCallum, III (Charlotte), one sister, Laura Waters (Thomas) one niece, Brittany Waters, another sister, Michelle McCallum Morris (New Jersey); and a host of close family and friends.

Richard was preceded in death by his grandmother, Dorothy L. Foy and baby son, Dominic McCallum.
