

Rickey Dunlap

June 22, 1957 - June 24, 2009

CHARLOTTE - Service for Mr. Rickey Clayton Dunlap, 52, will be held on Thursday, July 2, 2009 at A. E. Grier & Sons Funeral Ceremony of Choice Chapel at 2:00 p.m. Visitation 1:00 p.m. Home Going Service 2:00 p.m. A. E. Grier & Sons Funeral Ceremony of Choice Chapel 2310 Statesville Avenue Charlotte, NC 28206 Interment Oaklawn Cemetery "Don't forget to sign the guestbook"

Tribute Wall

FC

“ Rickey was a friend. We met at Walnut Street. He was a cool brother, loved his music, loved people and loved life. May God bless his soul.

Franklin Corry - June 21, 2023 at 10:21 PM

TB

“ Words cannot express how i feel at this time. Rickey was more than a 1st cousin to me, he was more of a big brother. What my children and i needed he was there when he could. He always called my children his niece and nephews. We had our ups and downs but was tight as glue. You will truly be missed in my family's heart. Love, Tip,CJ,Kiera,and Josh

Tiffany Mobley Bynum - July 01, 2009 at 09:44 AM

BM

“ Cousins, as I look at Rickey's picture, it is still hard to beleive that he is no longer here . He will ALWAYS be in my heart. To my family stay strong and remember we do have hope and that is in the resurrection, where we are able to see our love one again. Love Bel

Beverly Mobley-Johnson - July 01, 2009 at 07:13 AM

VD

“ I understand life and death are part of the same cycle but I am devastated and my heart is hurting. There are no words that can express the pain that I am feeling. I will forever cherish the memories of the many years we shared together. Eternal love. Rest in Peace.

Valerie Dunlap - June 30, 2009 at 10:35 PM

DM

“ Words escape me at this time. Rickey my dearest cousin, you are irreplaceable. I love you and will miss you dearly, your laughter, your booming voice and enigmatic presence was one of a kind. To know Rickey was to love him. A heart of GOLD!!! We have truly lost an angel on earth. Rest in Peace my cousin/brother.

Deborah Mobley - June 30, 2009 at 08:52 AM