

Robert Curry

April 16, 1948 - June 3, 2014

Mr. Robert “Sweet Water” Curry was born April 16, 1948 in Erie County, NY, to the late Young Coleman Curry and Amy Lee Brinson Curry. He was the fourth child of ten children. On Monday June 3, 2014, God sent a special Angel to his residence to receive his humble servant.

Mr. Curry loved the LORD and was truly a dedicated and humble servant. He received a Doctorate of Divinity from Augustine De Leon Bible Institute and Seminary. He created the “Say No To Drugs” ministry in Winston Salem, NC that helped people get off drugs, feed and clothed the homeless and brought many lives to Christ.

Robert graduated from Westinghouse High School in 1968, in Pittsburgh, PA and moved to Charlotte, NC in 1969. He is survived by his mother Amy Lee Brinson Curry, three sons; Anthony L. Curry, Darin L. Curry (wife Yvonda Curry), Bobby J. Curry, Sr. (wife Brandy Curry), Mother of his children Juanita Curry-Strothers , and his wife Rosalyn Harris Curry of Winston Salem, NC, stepson Jamie Hill; and sisters Doris Hopkins, Sharon Curry, Brenda Gossett, Rosemary Williams, and Loretta Galloway all of Pittsburgh, PA and Vanessa Curry of Charlotte, NC, special longtime friends Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morris and two special nieces. There are 24 grandchildren, 5 great grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, friends and his extended church family.

Final Services will be held in Pittsburgh, PA
