“ Robert and I worked together at Duke and at Shaw Energy. We worked in New Orleans and Houston Texas after Hurricane Katrina and Rita. He was known as the Price is Right because he would take orders from the Linemen for assorted beverages and supplies to pick up while they were working. In the afternoon after they got off work, they would line up at our room to pick up and pay for their orders. Robert was a great Guy, and he is truly missed. We only talked a few times a year after he retired but it was always great catching up.

“ To the Price Family, you have my deepest sympathy. The memories of my BFF Yvonne (Edie) lingers on (we shared Birthday's). When Rob and I both worked downtown and would see each other in passing we always shouted out 'HEY FAMILY'. Sorry for your loss.

“ May God bless the family of my beloved friend Rob. Death is hard to deal with when it comes and he was in the business of comforting families during their loss, so I share my thoughts and prayers to this family that I have known for many, many years. Let us remember a life well lived and memories he left behind. REST in PEACE Robert.
