

Ronald Leon Coleman

November 15, 1955 - September 28, 2015

Ronald Coleman, 59, the loving husband of Andriana Coleman, departed this life Monday, September 28, 2015 at Carolinas Medical Center. He was a member of Macedonia Baptist Church. He was born November 15, 1955 to the late Willie James Nix and Jessie Mae Stinson.

After losing his mother at an early age, life's circumstances sent Ronald to the Job Corp. where he earned his high school equivalency before his graduating class. He went on to attend South Georgia College majoring in Criminal Justice. He enlisted in the United States Army where he had top secret clearance and served as an Auto Mechanic for six years. After his discharge, he worked for several companies in the Charlotte area including the Charlotte Mecklenburg School System and the City of Charlotte, but his passion was in Culinary Arts. Ronald was an amazing cook and was employed at some of the best upscale restaurants in town.

Ronald did not meet strangers. What he enjoyed most was his family and friends. He was the ultimate party planner. If you had the opportunity to attend a "Ronald Coleman Bash" you were in for a good time.

His family was his life. His life's joy was his "girls." He loved to cook Sunday dinners and early morning breakfast for his family. He was a generous soul and tried his best to give his family the world. He was a father figure to so many of his daughters' friends and was loved and respected by many.

He was preceded in death by brothers; Eugene Coleman, John Henry Coleman and Gregory Coleman.

He leaves to mourn, Andriana Coleman his beloved wife of 34 years, daughters; Yarshika Barringer (Andre) and Shamia Coleman; two granddaughters that he loved dearly, Kendall Barringer and Kennedi House. He also leaves to cherish his memory uncle Marion Nix (Gloria) and aunt Dot Martin (Spurgeon), six sisters; Rosetta Coleman (Josh Kenion), Mary Elizabeth Grier, Jacqueline Gray, Joyce Wright, Phyllis Horton, Robin Lewis and two brothers; William Coleman and Timothy Stinson, Mother-in-law, Betty Stitt, Father-in-law, Richard Stitt and a host of nieces, nephews and close friends.
