“ It is with great sadness that this message must be left. For a better mentor, many of us have none. He taught all of us many things while we grew up together and attended church at O'Connor's Grove. He taught me the importance of always doing your best no matter what you were doing. One very important lesson that I learned was that there was no shame in being one of God's servants. He was a proud man who did more with actions than most did with empty words. Heaven gained a great soul on October 28, 2010. He has crossed over to that bourne from whose land no traveler has returned. But rest assured that he is safe from all hurt harm and danger. He is finally free to sing the refrain from the old negro spiritual "Sit Down Servant, Sit Down and Rest A Little While." May God Keep you all close to his loving breast and my the King of Peace rest rule and most importantly abide with each and everyone of you until that time that we all meet again.

“ I had the privilege of knowing this great man for all of my life & even worked with him at Seller's Service Station in 1977 at the young age of 15. He was always happy, always smiling, & brought the good out in everybody. This entire area, his family, friends, & anybody who had the honor of knowing him, knows that we have lost a great man, father, & friend. Our condolences go out to his family & be assured you are all in our prayers. "Rosey" you will be greatly missed.
Sincerely - Shannon Davis

“Roosevelt taught me at age 15 how to tune up a car, change the oil, reline brakes, bust down a tractor tire,...and much other car stuff. (Rosy was 25 years old then). He really taught me just how to be a man, when I rode my bike up to the service station to work after school. He was my mentor, and I was in awe of his big smile, and gold tooth, and muscles. Rosy was the man! Everybody loved Rosy because he did what he would say he would do, and would do it right. Rosy never said anything bad about anyone....ever. And he made sure I did right. (If I messed up he would` t tell Pete the boss:) On Friday the station would send out for beer...but Rosy was the one that would say...Billy you don` t need any of that. The old Sellers Service Station is gone now and Rosy moved on. Everybody loved this wonderful man that taught me how to be a man. I love this man so much. Our hearts are broken. God bless Rosy and his wonderful friends and family. I will never ever forget him. I pray my son grows up to be at least half the man Rosy was.
Sincerely, Bill Ballard

“To the Hinton Family it is with deepest sympathy that we extend to each of you during this most difficult hour in your life. Roosevelt was one of the most kind, compassionate, and helpful individual on the face of this earth. May you find strength and comfort and guideness in the Word of God. Remember that earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. May the blessing of God be with you all.

Matthew 5:16 (King James Version) Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. We share with you in this untimely loss of one of our community’s finest men of influence. The scripture encourages us to let our light so shine before men, that they will see our good works and glorify our Father which is in Heaven. Roosevelt Hinton’s light still shines in our church, through Richard and Cloie Lockhart. At times like this, what moves through us is a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, because we do not understand why he left this earth so soon, or why he left before we were ready to say good-bye. But little by little, we begin to remember not just that he died, but that he lived. And that life gave us wonderful strength, and memories, too beautiful to forget. It has been said, “Perhaps they are not the stars that illuminate the heavens at night, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our loved ones, pours through and shines down upon us, to let us know they are happy and that the light, like their influence in our lives, will live on forever. Our deepest sympathy and prayers are with you... Bishop Dan and Myra Carter, and The Eastway Church of God Family

“Wow. Sometimes there are just not any words. Roosevelt will be sorely missed. It’s one thing not to see someone for many years at a time, and think "I’ll stop by the next time I’m in town". It is a whole other thing to not be able to see them again. The moral to the story, don’t put off tomorrow what should be done today. God bless the family!
