

Ruby Mae Massey

February 19, 1942 - December 18, 2023

On February 19th, 1942, Ruby Mae Massey was born to the late Fred & Lillian Massey in Charlotte, NC. Ruby graduated from York Rd High School and went on to become a CNA. A true missionary, she dedicated her life to serving and caring for others. For many years she worked at Orthopedic Hospital (now known as Novant) until she retired. After retirement, she went on to do private duty work and care for many of her family members. She was a member of No Walls Ministries. In her free time, Ruby loved to cook, bake, travel, go to the casino and attend family reunions! She was known for her Cakes, Peanut Butter Cookies and Pink Lady! To know her was to love her! An angel on Earth. Ruby gave life to four children; Wesley "Michael" Massey, Bonnie Cassandra Price, Jarrod Clayton Massey Sr. (Sylvia) and Frederick Odell Massey (Kanisha). In addition, she was a blessing to ten grandchildren, and twelve great-grandchildren. Ruby gained her wings on Monday, December 18th, 2023. She was 81 years of age. Along with her children, she leaves with love her siblings; Carrie "Honey Pie" Roundtree, Juanita Byrd, Jesse Massey (all of Charlotte, NC) and Regina Thomas (of Merida, Mexico); and a host of family and friends.
