

Ruth Quick

May 18, 1930 - August 30, 2025

Mrs. Ruth Quick the daughter of the late Fletcher and Gertrude L. Thomas was born on May 18, 1930 in Marshville, North Carolina. She departed this earthly life on August 30, 2025 at Atrium Health University. Ruth moved to Charlotte and joined St Paul Baptist Church which was pastored by Dr. JF Wertz. She later united with Mayfield Memorial Missionary Baptist Church which was pastored by Dr. Harold Diggs. Ruth was employed at the Doctor's Building until she retired. Ruth was a faithful member at Mayfield Memorial Missionary Baptist Church. She was on the Pastor's Aide. She loved singing in the choir, ushering, working with the missionary and going to Sunday school. She left Mayfield Memorial Missionary Baptist Church and joined Seigle Avenue Church of God. She was a dedicated member, working in the church until her health failed. Everyone loved her dearly. She loved her family, especially her grandchildren. She would always bring them to church and do everything to help by taking and picking them up from school. They called her "Granny". She loved cooking for her family on Sunday. She also loved dressing up, looking good and traveling with her husband. She later met the love of her life Mr. Melvin Quick. She was a dedicated wife and loved her husband. They both loved the Lord. Ruth was preceded in death by her husband Melvin Quick of 31 years. She leaves to cherish fond memories her son: Jerry Wallace, two stepsons, Reginald Quick, Melvin Quick, two daughters, Doris Quick, Phyllis Phillips, one sister-in-law, Mary Lee Thomas and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren nieces, nephews family and friends.
