

Sandra Harris

August 25, 2017

Sandra Jean Harris, affectionately known as “Skeeter” by family and friends, was born on May 1, 1952 to the late Elijah and Priscilla Harris. Skeeter peacefully departed this life on August 25, 2017 surrounded by her sisters and brother who cared for her throughout her life.

Although developmentally disabled, she attended local elementary schools and graduated from Garinger High School. Skeeter had a joyous, playful spirit. She was baptized at an early age and loved to attend church. Skeeter was loved by all her nieces and nephews. She was always sharing her candy, gum, and money with them. She loved to play board games, especially Bingo. She played Bingo twice a week at Freedom Drive. She enjoyed T.V., “Leave it to Beaver”, “The Andy Griffith Show”, “M.A.S.H.”, and the Game Show Network. She also played Lottery scratch off games. She enjoyed reading old primary school books and to listen to patriotic music and to dance. She loved to go to Myrtle Beach and to go to Atlanta Braves games. Later in life she used a wheelchair, but this did not slow her down.

Skeeter was preceded in death by three sisters, Clarence McClean, Marg Shaw, and Priscilla Garvin.

Skeeter leaves behind to mourn her three sisters, Linda Harris, Sandee Harris, and Carol McCullough (Melvin); five brothers, Johnny Wells (Janie), James Harries (Fanny), Robert Harris (Norma), Stanley Harris, and Michael Harris (Arlene); her very special aunts Mary Wright and Daisy Wright and a host of nieces, nephews and great nieces and nephews.
