

Sandra Stradford

December 7, 1962 - June 19, 2026

Sandra Stradford, daughter of the late Randolph Harris and Bessie Stradford Harris, was born on December 7, 1962, in Charlotte, North Carolina. She peacefully departed this life on Thursday, June 18, 2026, at Redwood Health and Rehabilitation. As a child, her beloved babysitter, Mrs. Eula Brown, affectionately nicknamed her “Cookie.” During her teenage years, she became fondly known as “Sand.” Sandra was a member of Greater Mount Sinai Baptist Church, where she learned and embraced the power of prayer. She was educated in the Charlotte-Mecklenburg School System and graduated from South Mecklenburg High School in 1981. She later attended Central Piedmont Community College, earning her certification as a Nursing Assistant. Sandra continued her education at Southeastern Institute, where she studied medical billing and coding. Throughout her career, she held various positions, but her true calling was serving others as a Certified Nursing Assistant. Caring for people brought her joy and purpose. Sandra loved to dance, shop, and cook. She especially cherished watching cooking shows with her youngest niece, Sierra. Together, they often recreated the dishes they saw on television, most of which turned out delicious. Sandra was preceded in death by both parents Randolph and Bessie Harris and brother Eugene Harris. Sandra leaves to cherish her memory three sisters: Jane Stradford, Joan Stradford, and Jeanette Harris; three brothers: Ronnie Stradford (Rose), Raymond Stradford, and Charles Harris; four nieces: Assyria Jacobs, Sierra Harris, Rayanah

Stradford, and Shardei Stradford; one nephew: Nathan Cousar; and one great-niece: Kamila. She is also survived by a special cousin, Sandra Hemphill-Berry; her dear friend, Ethel Bellamy; and a host of relatives and friends who loved her deeply.
